BROWNWOOD - Texas AgriLife Extension Service's Brown County office has scheduled a hunting lease program for 6 p.m. Aug. 11 at the Brown County Fairgrounds located on Hwy. 377 South in Brownwood.

"Hunting season is just around the corner, so we have designed this program to serve as a checklist for the coming season," said Scott Anderson, AgriLife Extension agent in Brown County.

Speakers will include Judon Fambrough, senior lecturer with Texas A&M University's Real Estate Center, and David Drake, AgriLife Extension agronomist at San Angelo.

Fambrough will discuss various aspects of a good hunting lease, and Drake will speak on establishing deer food plots.

One Texas Department of Agriculture continuing education unit will be offered.

Individual registration is $10 by Aug. 10 and $15 thereafter. The fee includes a catered meal.

To pre-register or for more information contact the AgriLife Extension office in Brown County at 325-646-0386.
